

Jazz Mandolin Appetizers

Chord Melody #2 Ballad

Every jazz set should have at least one ballad. That term mostly refers to a slower tempo vehicle which gives the soloist space and time to "really tell a story". This one contains some mixed rhythms and introduces the moving voice technique in bar 14. I call that "The Jethroian Dominant"—he did that a lot on 7th chords. Try to ring as much sustain out of your mandolin as you can on this one, especially the melody notes—although you should be thinking of each chord group as one giant melody note.

The image shows a musical score for a mandolin piece titled "Chord Melody #2 Ballad". It includes a treble clef, a 4/4 time signature, and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The score is divided into two systems, A and B. System A contains measures 1 through 12, and System B contains measures 13 through 20. The music features a mix of eighth and quarter notes, with some chords indicated by letters like C, E7, A7, Dm, G7, and F. A large, stylized "Sample" watermark is overlaid across the center of the page. A silhouette of a mandolinist is positioned on the left side of the score. The page number "32" is located at the bottom center.
